Numb. 5130

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 16 to Saturday June 20. 1713

Kenſington, June 17.

THE following Addreſs from the Iſle of Ely, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Thomas Edwards, Eſq; High Bailiff of the ſaid Iſle; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord North and Grey, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Cambridge, and of the ſaid Iſle of Ely.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Bailiff, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Clergy and Freeholders in the Iſle of Ely, at the Aſſizes holden at Wisbech the 26th of May, 1713.

Madam,

WE preſume, with the reſt of Your faithful Subjects, to bring our Tribute of Praiſe and Thanks, for the manifold Bleſſings of Your Reign.

The World has been made ſenſible, what Your Arms can do; and Your own People feel the Benefits of Your Councils.

For in Your auſpicious Conduct of the War, Your Enemies found they were not Invincible; and Your Allies, that in the abſence of Your Armies, they knew not how to Conquer.

And in the Negotiations of the Peace, the Wiſdom of Your Councils hath obtained ſuch Advantages, as will in time repair the Expences of the long War: This we cannot doubt, for You have ſaid it.

Your Care of the Proteſtant Succeſſion, by Your entire Friendſhip with the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, is a Bleſſing we received with thankful Joy; and with the greateſt Gratitude, acknowledge Your Goodneſs in communicating it to Your Parliament.

Herein You have triumph'd over the impotent Malice of Your Enemies, and baffled the falſe Surmiſes of thoſe wicked Men, who would divide Your Intereſt and interrupt a Correſpondence, ſo neceſſary to make us happy; but we need now no other Guaranty, for we have Your Aſſurance that they ſhall never attain their ill Ends.

Thoſe Princes have been juſtly honour'd, whoſe Care contriv'd the Good of their preſent Subjects; but Your extenſive Goodneſs carries Your Solicitude forward into Futurity, providing Happineſs for ſucceeding Ages, in ſecuring to them their Religious and Civil Rights: For which Generations, yet unborn, ſhall bleſs Your Sacred Majeſty, and ſing Praiſes to Your Memory.

May the bleſſed Author of our Holy Religion, the Prince of Peace (who has pronounced the Peacemaker bleſſed) grant Your Sacred Majeſty Life and length of Days; that You may have the Pleaſure to ſee the Good You have done us, and Rejoice in the Proſperity You have procur'd for Your Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Abingdon, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Abingdon, their High Steward.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Abingdon.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

TO admit our moſt humble Congratulation upon the happy Concluſion of that Peace, which Your Arms and Councils have, with ſo much Conſtancy and Reſolution, forced from thoſe who of their own accord gave nothing but War and Diſturbance to Europe: And upon that intire Friendſhip which Your Majeſty hath been graciouſly pleaſed to declare is between Your Self and the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, which we rejoice to hear, and ſhall chearfully contribute our utmoſt Abilities, that thoſe ill Men who ſhall dare attempt to ſeparate Your Intereſt, may never obtain their ill Ends.

The Wiſdom of Your Majeſty, and of Your preſent Councils; and Your hearty Concern for Your Peoples Good, have appeared conſpicuous enough in theſe paſt Difficulties, to engage an entire Reliance in all future Emergencies: The diſtruſt of either can proceed from nothing leſs than a Diſaffection to Your Royal Government.

We beg leave to obſerve that the Triumphs made in the laſt Reign, and the Peace which was then procured, vaniſhed before we had taſted the Fruits of them, while the fixing a true Ballance of Power in Europe, upon a Foundation adequate to the Support of it; and the uniting Two of Your own Kingdoms, were Glories reſerved by Providence for Your Majeſty's Reign, viſibly to diſtinguiſh and reward Your exalted Piety and Beneficence.

And may thoſe Virtues which are daily practiſed and incouraged by Your Majeſty, find ſuch an Imitation in Your People, as may move Almighty GOD to continue to us a long Enjoyment of thoſe Bleſſings You have procured for us, and Your Majeſty's long Reign over us, the only additional Happineſs which You have now left for Your Subjects to wiſh or pray for.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Thetford, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir John Wodehouſe, Bart. Recorder of the ſaid Town, and Sir Thomas Hanmer, Bart. being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Ormond.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes, Town Clerk, and Commonalty of Your ancient Borough of Thetford, in the Counties of Norfolk and Suffolk.

Moſt

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg leave to embrace this great Occasion, humbly to Congratulate Your Sacred Majesty upon the happy End You have put to this tedious War, by a safe and honourable Peace. A Peace in every respect glorious to Your Majesty, and beneficial to Your People; by which the Honour of Great Britain is asserted, the Welfare of our Trade established, the true Ballance of Europe fixed, the Protestant Succession in the Illustrious House of Hanover maintained, and whatever is dear to us preserved and secured.

If still any amongst us remain unsatisfied, to what can we attribute it, but to the restless Humour of a Sett of Men never to be won, who being disappointed in the Schemes they had laid, and confounded in their own Inventions, have done their utmost to obstruct Your Majesty's Measures; tho' (we thank GOD) it hath had no other Effects than to expose themselves, and shew their Ingratitude to the best of Queens.

May GOD of his infinite Mercy, long preserve Your Majesty for the Good of Your People. May You long enjoy the Peace You have so well settled in Europe; and whenever Your Majesty shall change this Terrestrial for an Immortal Crown, may Your glorious Example be a Pattern to all Posterity.

The following Address from the Town and Borough of Southmolton, was presented to Her Majesty by John Fortescu Aland, Esq; their Recorder; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Lansdowne.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Burgesses, and other the Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Borough of Southmolton, in the County of Devon.

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, laying to Heart the inestimable Blessings of Peace, do beg leave, in the most humble manner, to express our Gratitude with the rest of the World, in giving Your Majesty our most cordial Thanks for Your wonderful Care and Wisdom in procuring to us so general a Happiness.

What can be more honourable and glorious to Your Majesty, or bring greater Joy to Your Subjects, than after a prosperous and successful War, to live under the Influence of a lasting and advantageous Peace.

We have farther to thank Your Majesty for Your indefatigable Care, in cultivating so strict a Friendship, and preserving so great Amity between Your Majesty and the Illustrious House of Hanover, whereby the Blessing of Peace, with our Religion, Laws and Liberties, may be transmitted down, with Security, to endless Generations.

May the GOD of Peace bless Your Majesty with a long and happy Reign, to which this Your loyal Corporation (never corrupted by a Mixture of Principles) sets no Limits; and may the Fruits of Peace, a flourishing Trade, and rich People adorn it; that Generations to come, may bless Your Royal Virtues, and own their Happiness, as owing to Your great Mind.

This is the Wish and Prayer of Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Great Bedwin, was presented to Her Majesty by Thomas Millington, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Bruce.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Portrieve, Bailiff, Freeholders and Burgesses of the antient Borough of Great Bedwin, in the County of Wilts.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE think our selves most happy in this Opportunity, of presenting Your Majesty with our most humble Thanks, for having made such a Peace for the Nation, as will effectually secure the Church of England as by Law Established, the Protestant Succession in the most Illustrious House of Hanover, and by which our Trade is taken care of in so ample a manner.

Nothing less than the Wisdom and Steddiness of Your Majesty, and those employed by You, was requisite to bring about this great Affair, considering the Oppositions it has met with from some of our Allies, and the Clamour raised against it by a restless and dissatisfied Faction at home, who were sorry to see such a Peace made, as in all human Probability will prove as lasting as its now glorious, and not like a former one, which was but a forerunner of another bloody and most expensive War.

That Your Majesty may long and prosperously Reign over us, is what we desire, and shall always continue heartily to pray for.

The following Address from the Corporation of Dunwich, in the County of Suffolk, was Presented to Her Majesty by Mr. Serjeant Richardson, one of their Representatives in Parliament; being Introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viscount Bolingbroke, One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Recorder, Aldermen, and Free-Burgesses of Your Majesty's ancient and loyal Corporation of Dunwich, in the County of Suffolk, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WE Your Majesty's most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, beg leave to approach Your Majesty with our Tribute of unfeigned Thanks for that so much desired and invaluable Blessing of Peace obtained by Your Majesty for all Your Subjects, after so long, bloody and expensive a War.

When we consider the various and great Difficulties contrived and carried on by Men of Factious and Republican Principles, to oppose and obstruct the same, we cannot sufficiently admire Your Majesty's great Wisdom and steddy Councils in disposing Matters in that wonderful Order, for carrying on and perfecting that Great and Glorious Work.

It is to Your Majesty's great and constant Zeal and Piety which so signally Adorns the Reformed Religion; we owe the Security of the Protestant Succession in the Illustrious House of Hanover, so strongly Cemented by a perfect and entire Friendship between Your Majesty and that Family.

We entirely rely on Your Majesty's Goodness and Princely Care for the future Expectations of being a Happy and Florishing People, being assured that Your Majesty will Cultivate all Opportunities for our Good, in promoting Trade and Unanimity amongst us.

The Consideration of these mighty Blessings call for our utmost Gratitude, and unfeigned Duty and Loyalty to the best of Princes.

And

And we moſt humbly beg leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that upon all Occaſions we will do our utmoſt Endeavours to diſtinguiſh our ſelves as ſuch, and to offer up our Prayers to Almighty GOD, to Bleſs Your Majeſty with a very long, proſperous and glorious Reign, in which conſiſts the Good of all Your Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Corporation of Queenborough, was Preſented to Her Majeſty by James Herbert and Thomas King, Eſqrs, their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being Introduced by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of Your Majeſty's ancient Corporation of Queenborough.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, whoſe Hearts are Exalted with the higheſt Tranſports of Joy, humbly beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty on Your Succeſs, by accompliſhing ſo great, though difficult, a Work, a Peace, which gives Life not only to Your Own People, but to Your Allies. It concerns us to think how ſtrenuouſly Your Majeſty's Glorious Endeavours has been Obſtructed by a Faction, whoſe Paſſions are incurable, and, like Fewel, overcome by their own Flames.

Your Majeſty's Pious Care for our Religion, the Proteſtant Succeſſion, Your indefatigable Thoughts for Trade, that it may be ſo Cultivated for the Good of all Your Subjects, and Your great Wiſdom in making Choice of ſo great and wiſe a Miniſtry, are ſuch Motives of Endearment, ſufficient to Animate the Hearts of all good Men to the moſt profound Duty.

And as we are at all Times ſincerely Devoted at Your Majeſty's Service, ſhall never be wanting to ſhew our Fidelity, by ſending ſuch Perſons to Repreſent us in Parliament, whoſe Principles will never lead them to Diſpute Your Majeſty's Hereditary Right, zealous for the Church of England as by Law Eſtabliſh'd, and the Succeſſion of the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

May that Great GOD, who has enabled Your Majeſty to perform this great Work, bleſs Your Majeſty with Health and a long Life, that You may enjoy the Fruits of this good and happy Peace, ſo much to Your Majeſty's Satisfaction, and to Your Subjects Comfort, is the hearty and unfeigned Prayers of Your Majeſty's Loyal, Dutiful and Obedient Corporation.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Colcheſter, was Preſented to Her Majeſty by William Gore, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, accompanied by Ralph Creffield and John Potter, Eſqrs, Aldermen, who had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand; being Introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viſcount Bolingbroke, Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the County of Eſſex. And Her Majeſty was pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood upon Ralph Creffield, Eſq;

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Loyal Part of the Aldermen, Common-Council, Clergy, Free Burgeſſes, and other Principal Inhabitants of Your ancient Borough of Colcheſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THE Divine Goodneſs which always bleſſed Your Auſpicious Arms with Victory, has now Crown'd Your Compaſſionate Endeavours for Your Peoples Welfare with the far greater Bleſſing of Peace. We intreat Your Sacred Majeſty to accept our humble Tribute of Thanks and unfeigned Obedience, for the happy Accompliſhment of this great Work, which as Your Piety began, ſo Your Wiſdom has (in ſpite of all Oppoſition) moſt Gloriouſly finiſh'd.

The many Difficulties You have ſurmounted, ſerve only to add a greater Luſtre to Your Annals.

As we never doubted but that the Peace You were beſtowing on us, would be (in all its Parts) anſwerable to our utmoſt Wiſhes, ſo we have good Reaſon to like it the better for its being diſliked by thoſe who (through Ignorance or Partiality) ſeem'd ever reſolv'd to Cavil at it; and 'tis hard to ſay which is Weakeſt, their Numbers or their Arguments.

We whoſe Livelihoods conſiſt by Trade, have long Labour'd under many Hardſhips for want of a Free One; which now being procured for us with Safety, it muſt be our own Faults, and want of Induſtry, if we do not ſoon recover our former Loſſes: Neither do we in the leaſt fear any Foreign Rivalſhip to our Home-Manufactures, ſince the Laws of our Country encourage what Providence in ſo peculiar a manner has beſtow'd on us.

Your Majeſty's great Care for (and Your Friendſhip with) the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, and in that above all, for our moſt Holy Religion, affords us and our Poſterity, a pleaſing Proſpect of a laſting Tranquillity, ſince what Your Royal Heart is ſo much concerned for, we truſt the good Providence will not deny, for the Glory and Eſtabliſhment of Your Kingdoms.

May your Majeſty long live to enjoy the Bleſſing of Peace; may You always be ſerved by ſuch a Faithful and Steddy Miniſtry; and may all our Fellow-Subjects be ſo Grateful to Your Majeſty, and ſo Loving to each other, as to have a juſt Senſe of Your Majeſty's great Goodneſs towards them; are the conſtant and unfeigned Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Harwich, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Thomas Frankland and Kendrick Edisbury, Eſqrs, their Repreſentatives in Parliament, and Thomas Davall, Eſq; (on whom Her Majeſty was pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood); being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Bolingbroke, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Eſſex, and Recorder of the ſaid Corporation.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Harwich.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, being highly ſenſible of Your great Care and Wiſdom, in eſtabliſhing a happy and glorious Peace, to the Joy and Satisfaction of all ſuch as are truly Well-wiſhers to the Welfare of Your Kingdom of Great Britain; and alſo in eſtabliſhing the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover,

Do humbly beg leave to expreſs our Obligations and Thankfulneſs to Your Majeſty, for ſo great a Bleſſing; and, as in Duty bound, ſhall heartily pray for the long continuance of Your happy Reign over us and our Poſterity.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of King's Lynn, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Charles Turner, Knt. and John Turner, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Dartmouth,

One

One of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council, Freemen and Chief Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's ancient Borough of King's Lynn in Norfolk.

Dread Sovereign,

AFTER the frequent Occaſions we have had of approaching Your Royal Preſence, to congratulate the glorious Succeſſes of Your Majeſty's Arms, and to preſent our humble Thanks and grateful Acknowledgments for Your Majeſty's particular regard to the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover: The conſtant Inſtances of Your Care for the Eſtabliſhed Church of England, and Your tender Concern for the Welfare of Your People: nothing could more effectually conſummate Your Glory and their Happineſs, than an honourable and laſting Peace, as the undoubted Conſequence of Your Majeſty's repeated Victories.

May Your Sacred Majeſty reap with Pleaſure the Fruits of Your many pious Cares: May that Church You have ſo much at Heart, that Religion You ſo much Adorn, and thoſe Laws and Liberties You ſo glorioufly Aſſert and Defend, be long cheriſhed under the happy and auſpicious Protection of the moſt gracious and beſt of QUEENS, which ſhall be the Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt loyal and obedient Subjects.

An humble and loyal Addreſs from the Corporation of Hertford, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Charles Cæſar and Richard Goulſton, Eſqrs, their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Salisbury, High Steward of the ſaid Corporation.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Madrid, June 5. N. S. We have receiv'd Advice by an Expreſs which arrived two Days ago from the Marquis de Monteleone, that all the Points for a Treaty of Peace between Great Britain and Spain were agreed, and that it would be ſign'd in a ſhort time. It is ſaid it will be ratified here without any Alteration, and the Ratification will be immediately diſpatch'd to Utrecht, in order to be exchanged there. Yeſterday the Grandees went to Court to Congratulate their Majeſties upon this News, and Illuminations are order'd for three Nights ſucceſſively. The King hath ſent Directions to the Duke of Turſis, to diſpoſe of the Galleys in the Haven at Genoa, ſince there is now no further occaſion for them, his Majeſty having deliver'd up his States in Italy. The Chamber of the Council of Caſtile, has received Orders from the King, to recommend three Perſons for the Archbiſhoprick of Toledo, from whence it is thought the Differences between this Court and that of Rome are in a fair way of being accommodated. The Marquis de Caſſaſola is baniſh'd twenty Leagues from the Court, for having hunted in the King's Woods without leave. Don Franciſco Bruno, a Sicilian Officer, hath been ſent to Ceuta in Africa, and impriſon'd there for having ſpoke diſreſpectfully of the Government, for yielding Sicily to the Duke of Savoy. Letters from Tarragona bring an Account, that the Duke de Popoli had halted at Belchile within eight Leagues from thence, and that he waited there for freſh Inſtructions. Thoſe Advices add, that it was not known when the Evacuation of Catalonia would be perfected, the Britiſh Squadron being retired to Port Mahon, and the Catalans having refuſed to grant Mareſchal Staremberg the Sum he demanded of them for the Embarkation of the Imperial Troops. They write from Cadiz, that Commodore Paddon was arrived there with the Squadron under his Command, and had made a Truce for three Months with the Emperor of Morocco, who ſeem'd very deſirous of a Peace.

Hamburg, June 16. N. S. The Czar having demanded the Sum of Four hundred thouſand Crowns of this City, for Satisfaction of the Injuries he pretends to have received from us, the Deputies of the Council have been ſeveral times with Prince Menzikoff upon this Occaſion, and by the Interpoſition of Count Schonborn, the Emperor's Miniſter, they have this Day compounded with him for Two hundred thouſand Crowns; half of which is to be paid down upon the Departure of the Muſcovite Troops out of our Neighbourhood, and the reſt at two other Payments. The Saxons have alſo form'd ſome Pretenſions upon us, which it is hoped will be amicably adjuſted. Prince Menzikoff hath received an Expreſs from the Czar, with Advice, that he had made himſelf Maſter of Abo and all Finland, and Orders to follow him into Funen with Fifteen thouſand Muſcovites that are here. It is ſaid they will will be embark'd at Dantzick on Board the Tranſport Ships that carried the Czar with Eighteen thouſand Men to Helſingfort, and as that Prince had a conſiderable Body of Troops before at Weybourg and Ingermiland, he will have in all an Army of Fifty thouſand Men, with which he intends to act this Summer in Sweden, and endeavour to approach Stockholm. This hath raiſed a great Conſternation among the Swedes, and we are aſſured that their Senate have reſolved to aſſemble the four Eſtates of the Kingdom, in order to deliberate about making a Peace. The King of Denmark hath refuſed Eight thouſand Muſcovites that the Czar offer'd to leave him, in caſe he would furniſh them with Bread and Quarters. Count Lewenhalt is gone to

Berlin,

Berlin, to desire the Intercession of that Court with his Danish Majesty, in the behalf of the Duke of Holstein his Master.

Hanover, June 20. N. S. The Electress Dowager is gone to Brunswick, where she was met by the Duke of Wolfenbuttel, who went thither to receive her, and to accompany her from thence to Saltzdal. To Morrow the Elector intends likewise to set out from hence, in order to drink the Waters at Pirmond. Directions are sent for his Electoral Highness's Troops that were in Dutch Pay, to march towards the Upper Rhine, and a considerable number of Horses have been lately bought here for the Use of those Forces. They write from Hamburgh, that the Magistrates of that City have compounded with Prince Menzikoff, and are to pay him the Sum of Two hundred thousand Crowns, to prevent the military Execution he had threatned them with. The same Letters add, that General Flemming likewise demands One hundred thousand Crowns of them, for what reason is not yet known. We have receiv'd advice from Petersburg, that the Czar was landed with Eighteen thousand Men at Helsingfort in Finland, without resistance, the Swedes having abandoned that Place, in order to take Possession of some other Posts, and oppose the Muscovites March to Abo. But as the Czar hath been join'd by Four thousand Dragoons, of the Troops he had before in Finland, it is thought the Swedes will not be in a condition to hinder the Siege of that Place, which is said to be otherwise very ill provided for a Defence.

Paris, June 23. N. S. On the 17th, the great Council went to Versailles, and had an Audience of the King. Monsieur de Vertamont, first President, made a Speech to his Majesty to compliment him upon the conclusion of the Peace. Afterwards Monsieur Dagoumer, at the head of the University, and Cardinal Polignac at the head of the French Academy, had Audiences upon the same occasion. A Marriage is concluded between the Duke of Bourbon and Mademoiselle de Conti, as also between the Prince of Conti and Mademoiselle de Bourbon. It is said the Trenches before Landau were to be opened Yesterday.

Utrecht, June 23. N. S. Monsieur Heespen, Plenipotentiary of the Circle of Swabia, is gone from hence to the Hague. On the 21st, the Ministers of Portugal were in Conference with the Lord Privy Seal at his own House, after which they dispatch'd a Courier to their Court. This Morning the Ambassador of Venice was likewise in Conference with his Lordship. The Earl of Strafford is arrived here from the Hague.

Hague, June 23. N. S. The Earl of Strafford set out Yesterday for Utrecht, in order to confer with the Plenipotentiaries of Spain, upon the Subject of Signing the Peace; Monsieur Buys, Monsieur Van der Dussen, and Monsieur Renswoude, Plenipotentiaries of the States, are likewise preparing to go thither upon the same account, having received Instructions to use their utmost Endeavours to Sign the Treaty of Peace with Spain jointly, and at the same time with the Queen's Ministers. The States have already given Orders for publick Rejoycings upon this Occasion, and a new Firework is erecting, that will be no less magnificent than the former. This Morning a Courier arriv'd from Monsieur Colyar, Commander of the Troops before Luxemburg, with advice, that the French Governor of that Place had sent to let him know, that he had Orders to prepare for the Evacuation of it, and that he should be ready to deliver it up to him in two or three Days. It is believ'd the States of Holland will approve of the nomination of Mounsieur Buys and Monsieur Renswoude for Ambassadors to the Court of France.

The Paymaster-General of Her Majesty's Guards, Garrisons, &c. in Great Britain, hereby gives Notice, that Money is issued for the Subsistance of the Troops and Regiments under his Care, to the 23*d of* June instant, inclusive.

The Commissioners for Victualling Her Majesty's Navy having received a Letter by the Penny Post, sign'd M. A. do hereby give Notice, That if the Person who sent the same will come to their Office, and make out his Allegations, he shall have all due Encouragement.

Admiralty-Office, June 11, 1713.

The Rt. Hon. the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty having some time since ordered the several disabled Seamen undermentioned to be Entertained in Her Majesty's Royal Hospital at Greenwich, as Pensioners; but they having not yet made their Appearance at the said Hospital, their Lordships are pleased to give Notice, that if they do not apply themselves to Sir William Gifford, Knt. Governor of the aforesaid Hospital, within three Weeks after the Date hereof, other disabled Seamen will be Entertained there in their Rooms.

Samuel Ludlow. Thomas Kirkham,
Francis Bayly. Thomas Andrews.
Ant. Witham.

These are to give Notice to all such Persons as have given Credit to or Subsisted any of the Invalid Out-Pensioners belonging to Her Majesty's Royal Hospital at Chelsea, either in Quarters or otherways, that they do not, on any Pretence whatsoever, continue to Credit or Subsist the said Pensioners, or any of them, after the 24*th of this Instant* June, till farther Directions be given in the Gazette thereupon, there being a new Regulation of Rewards made to the Pensioners, and several of them to be dismist the Pension from that time.

By Order of the Lords and others Commissioners of the Hospital,

James Duke Crispe.

Adver-
